

wXw NOW GmbH, Almastrasse 39, 45886 Gelsenkirchen

wXw NOW GmbH (est. 2018) is the video production and video licensing rights management company for Germany's market leader in professional wrestling, wXw. Based in Gelsenkirchen, wXw NOW GmbH films and produces video content from wXw and wXw Wrestling Academy live events. wXw NOW GmbH distributes video content via it's own SVoD portal and licenses it's video to third-parties worldwide.

We are looking for Video crew members for live events/video broadcast on a freelance basis.

Specifically looking for operators with experience in any of the following:

- VT Playback
- Live graphics
- Live audio mixing

About the role:

- Assist with loading/unloading of production equipment from trucks
- Assist with set-up/de-rigging of production equipment in venues, including laying of cables and cable management
- Follow directions as per director/producer on each broadcast and operate as needed

Personal attributes:

- Fluent in English
- Remain calm under pressure
- Keen eye for detail
- Passion for Professional Wrestling
- A willingness to learn and develop your skills
- Work well as part of a team
- Able to make decisions
- Able to receive and action feedback
- Available on Weekends
- Willingness to travel across Germany

Bonus, but not essential:

- Car + Driving License
 - Experience in live events/live video broadcast
-

- Experience as a Broadcast Camera Operator

Please include relevant production credits, as well as a list of software and hardware systems that you are comfortable working with for these roles.

Applications by January 31st, 2023, to Marc Shuttle (marc.shuttle at wXw-wrestling-com).

Applications may be filed in German or English.
